

Design Team Workshop: From Competencies to Performance Assessments

November 17, 2014

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How do we translate our pathway outcomes into high-quality performance assessments?

LEARNING TARGET

I can explain the concept of a competency and can identify the competencies on which my school's performance assessment system is based.

PRODUCT

By the end of the session, our team will have a list of measurable competencies to which we are designing the performance assessments that will populate student portfolios.
